TODD JAMISON
GENERAL MANAGER

Todd Jamison is the general manager of Elegant Islands Hotel. He joined the hotel in 2014, bringing over 17 years of hospitality experience to run the AAA Four Diamond hotel perched along the St. Lawrence River in the 1000 Islands region of Clayton, New York.

Jamison relocated to the 1000 Islands region from Syracuse, New York, where he was the general manager at WonderWorld. There he was charged with building the unique amusement park from the ground up, hiring and managing 100 staff members, building a sales force and developing partnerships with local organizations.

Prior to WonderWorld, Jamison served as the general manager of the Crestwood Inn, a 136-room, full-service hotel in Syracuse, New York. He led, supervised and directed all hotel operations and financial activities of the hotel, including its four meeting rooms, grand ballroom and 120-seat restaurant. There he developed a positive, excellence-driven culture that inspired both staff and customers alike. He was previously the director of sales and marketing at The Grandeur Grande and Parkplace Hotels, as well as the corporate and educational sales manager at The Mark Hotel and Conference Center.

Jamison has a Bachelor of Science degree in food, hotel and resort management from Keuroko College.
